

ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2026 · OSLO 13-15 SEPTEMBER

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

We have the pleasure of inviting you to the LES Scandinavia Annual Conference taking place in Oslo, Norway 13 -15 September 2026.

This conference is a must for innovators, licensing and IP experts, technologists, lawyers and business leaders. It is for those who want to deepen their understanding on technology trends, licensing business and various forms of intellectual property. And for those who want to network with recognized experts and colleagues in an international setting.

The theme of this year's conference is IP in a Fragmented World: Trade, Security & Innovation. We are pleased to invite you to become a sponsor of the event. Details about the available sponsorship packages are provided on the following pages. If you have any questions or would like to confirm your sponsorship, please contact the conference organising committee using the information listed at the end of this proposal.
